

Fraudulent email – NABARD Alert (Public Notice)

It has come to the notice of NABARD that an e mail has been sent in its name stating that NABARD is accepting applications for Small Grant Programme from grass root NGOs across India and a link is provided for information and application form.

NABARD clarifies that it has not issued any such communication by email or otherwise.

It is further clarified that NABARD does not issue such communication by email asking NGOs to apply for any grant assistance for any purpose. NABARD appeals to NGOs, members of public not to respond to such mails and not to share any money or their bank account details with anyone for any purpose. It is notified that NABARD shall not be responsible for anything in this regard in any manner whatsoever.
