

“Sustainable Livelihoods of Agriculture-Dependent Rural Communities in Drought Prone District of Himachal Pradesh through Climate Smart Solutions” is being executed by Department of Environment, Science & Technology, Government of Himachal Pradesh in drought affected areas of Sirmour district with an outlay of Rs. 20 Crores. The project envisions to improve the adaptive capacity of small and marginal farmers including rural women in Sirmour district by introducing a combination of Climate Smart Technologies along with required social engineering and capacity building processes.

Click here to download Project Document

Click here to download Publication