

“Model Carbon Positive Eco-Village in Phayeng of Manipur”: The project is being implemented in Phayeng village, Imphal West District of Manipur. The overall objective is to develop a model carbon positive eco-village by blending traditional and modern climate adaptive practices for Agriculture & its allied sectors to reduce vulnerability and enhance resilience of the traditional livelihood systems. The project is being executed by Directorate of Environment, Government of Manipur with an outlay of Rs.10 Crores.

Click here to download Project Document

Click here to download Publication