PART I - PAY AND ALLOWANCES

When accrue and payable	58	Subject to the provision of these Rules, pay and allowances shall accrue from the commencement of the service of an employee and shall become payable on the afternoon of the last working day of each month in respect of the service performed during the said month ;
		provided that an employee proceeding on any kind of leave other than extra-ordinary leave for a period not less than one month shall be paid in advance one month's pay and allowances, if he applies therefor.
When ceases	59	Pay and allowances shall cease to accrue as soon as an employee ceases to be in service. In the case of an employee dismissed from the National Bank's service, the pay and allowances shall cease from the date of his dismissal. In the case of an employee who dies while in service, they shall cease from the day following that on which the death occurs.
All employees to be graded	60	Every employee shall have a post in one of the grades fixed for each of the categories of staff, which will be considered as his substantive grade and to which he shall revert when he is not -  (a) under suspension ; (b) on leave or deputation ; or (c) holding a temporary or a probationary post or officiating in another grade.
Adjustment of pay and allowances on change of charge - when takes effect	61	An employee shall commence to draw the pay and allowances of a post to which he is appointed as from the date on which he assumes the duties of the post if the charge is transferred before noon of that date and from the following day if the charge is transferred in the afternoon of that date.
Two persons not to be appointed to a post at the same time	62	Except as otherwise provided in these Rules, no two persons may be appointed to, or draw the pay and allowances, of, a post at the same time.

Employees on transfer	63	Where an employee is transferred from one post to another, he shall, during any interval of duty between the date of his handing over charge of the old post and the date of his taking over charge of the new post, draw the pay and allowances of the old or the new post, whichever are less.
Admissibility of allowances	64	Allowances shall only be payable to employees who are actually at the time fulfilling the conditions subject to which they are admissible.
Overtime allowance	65	(1) Notwithstanding the fact that the whole time of an employee is at the disposal of the National Bank, the National Bank may grant overtime allowance, not counting as pay, to an employee who is not an officer if he is required to work on Sundays or holidays or to put in extra hours on week days in connection with the National Bank's work.
		(2) The rate at and the circumstances in which such allowance may be drawn shall be determined by the Board.
Increments	66	(1) In an incremental scale, the increment shall accrue on the completion of each specified period of service on each stage of that scale, whether such service be probationary, officiating or substantive. Provided that the benefit of increment will be admissible from the first of the month in which it accrues. Provided further that - (a) an increment withheld as a measure of penalty will be granted from the date the penalty ceases ; and (b) consequent upon grant of extra-ordinary leave without pay and allowances not counting for increment, the date of accrual of next increment shall be postponed by the number of days of extra ordinary leave granted.
		(2) Officiating service in a higher grade will count for increment in that higher grade as well as the employee's substantive grade and also in the intermediate grade, if any, in which he would have officiated had he not been appointed to officiate in the higher grade.
		(3) If an employee officiating in a higher grade proceeds on leave, such period of leave (except extra-ordinary leave taken otherwise than on medical certificate) as is certified by the Competent Authority to be the period for which the employee would have continued to officiate in the higher grade but for his proceeding on leave, shall count for the purpose of increment in the same way as period of duty in the higher grade although, in terms of Rule 60, he stood reverted to his substantive grade with effect from the date he proceeded on leave.

		(4) No increment may be withheld except as a disciplinary measure under Rule 47 and each order withholding an increment shall state the period for which it is withheld and whether the postponement shall have the effect of postponing future increments; provided that if in an incremental scale there is an efficiency bar, an employee shall not draw increments above that bar until he has been certified fit to do so by the Competent Authority. On each occasion on which an employee is allowed to pass an efficiency bar which has previously been enforced against him, he shall be placed in the incremental scale at such stage as the authority competent to remove the bar may fix provided that such stage shall not be higher than that at which he would have drawn his pay if the bar had not been enforced against him and further that no increments granted on the removal of a bar shall have a retrospective effect.
		(5) Sanction to draw increments will be given by the Competent Authority.
Premature increments	67	The Chairman may, in exceptional circumstances, and subject to such general or special instructions as may be issued by the Board grant premature increments to an employee provided that the grant of such premature increments to an employee in Group 'A' shall require the approval of the Board in each case.
Refixation of pay-on appointment on probation	68	(i) Subject to such special or general instructions as may be issued from time to time by the National Bank, the pay of an employee on appointment on probation, from one grade to another, shall initially be so fixed in the scale of pay of the post in which the employee is appointed that it is not less than his substantive pay.
- on confirmation		(ii) On confirmation in the higher grade, the pay of an employee shall be fixed at the appropriate stage as per the instructions issued by the National Bank from time to time.
Officiating pay	69	(1) An employee who is appointed to officiate in a higher grade shall draw an officiating pay equal to the difference between his pay in the substantive grade or any intermediate grade in which he is already officiating and his pay in the higher grade.
		(2) Subject to such special or general instructions as may be issued from time to time by the National Bank, the pay of an employee appointed to officiate in a higher grade may be fixed at a stage in the scale of pay of the higher grade which is next above his pay in the substantive grade or intermediate grade in which he is already officiating ; provided that when the promotion is of a temporary nature and the circumstances of the promotion so justify, the Chairman may fix the pay of an employee at an amount less than that admissible under this Rule.

		(3) If an employee is reverted and is subsequently reappointed to officiate in a higher grade, his earlier officiating service in the higher grade will be taken into account for fixing his officiating pay and for permitting him to draw increments in the officiating grade in terms of Rule 66(1) ;
		provided that the pay to be fixed on such reappointment shall not be less than the pay drawn by the employee at the time of his reversion immediately preceding his reappointment.
Admissibility of pay and allowances	70	(1) Except as otherwise provided in these Rules or as may be prescribed by the Board, the pay and allowances of an employee shall be regulated in accordance with the provision of Appendices I and II as may be modified from time to time.

An employee shall not ordinarily be allowed to convert one type of leave to another to suit his convenience.
Lapse of leave on cessation of service	79	Leave earned by an employee lapses on the date on which he ceases to be in service-

		PART II - CASUAL, SPECIAL CASUAL, ORDINARY, SICK, SPECIAL, EXTRA-ORDINARY, MATERNITY, ACCIDENT, CHILD ADOPTION AND PATERNITY LEAVE

However, a temporary employee during the first six months of his service will be eligible for casual leave at one day for each completed month of service. Casual leave may not be granted in combination with any other kind of leave except special casual leave. The entire unavailed casual leave of a calendar year may be allowed to be carried forward and credited to a special sick leave account. The special sick leave can be availed of only on medical grounds anytime during the following three calendar years without, however, insisting upon the production of a medical certificate. The special sick leave may be granted separately or in combination with casual leave only, subject to the provisions of this Rule.

Special casual leave	87	Notwithstanding anything contained in Rule 86, the Managing Director may permit the grant of special casual leave
		(1) (i) when the absence from duty is necessitated by orders from the authorities empowered to issue quarantine orders not to attend office in consequence of infectious disease in the family or household of an employee ;

		(iii) when the absence is necessitated by reason of an employee who is a member of the Auxiliary Force, India; Home Guards or other Civil Defence Organization or any other official organization of a similar nature having to attend an annual camp or be on training ; or
		(iv) when there are other exceptional circumstances necessitating the grant of casual leave in excess of the prescribed limits.
		(2) Upto 21 days in any one calendar year when the absence is necessitated by reason of an employee having to attend as a delegate a meeting of an Association recognised by the National Bank.
		(3) Upto 45 days in any one calendar year when the absence is necessitated by reason of an employee participating in sporting events of national or international importance or any other sporting event approved by the National Bank.
		Explanation 1 -Except in respect of special casual leave sanctioned in terms of Rule 87(1) (iv), the total period of casual leave granted under Rule 86 and the special casual leave granted under Rule 87(1) in any one calendar year shall in no case exceed 30 days and if the grant of leave under the said Rules shall result in such total period being extended beyond 30 days shall be treated, subject to the provisions of Rule 93(2) as ordinary, sick, special or extra-ordinary leave as the employee concerned may request and as may be admissible to him.

		Explanation 2 -In computing casual leave under Rule 86 and special casual leave under Rule 87, intervening public holidays shall not be reckoned as days of casual leave or special casual leave as the case may be.

Scale on which ordinary leave is earned	89	An employee shall earn ordinary leave at one-eleventh part of duty rendered by him.
Ordinary leave due	90	The ordinary leave due to an employee is the period which he has earned less the period of leave actually taken.
Limits upto which ordinary leave may be earned or taken	91	The period of ordinary leave which can be taken at any one time by an employee is ten months and no further ordinary leave can be earned by him ;  provided that if, at least three months before the date on which an employee shall have earned leave for the maximum period, he has formally applied for leave and the leave has been refused or he has ascertained in writing that leave, if applied for, will not be granted, such an employee may be permitted to earn leave in excess of the maximum aforesaid, upto the date specified by the authority competent to grant leave.
Pay during ordinary leave	92	An employee on ordinary leave shall draw a pay equal to his leave pay.
Sick and special leave - limit upto which may be granted	93	(1) During the full period of his service, an employee may be granted special leave on private affairs for a period not exceeding twelve months and sick leave on medical certificate for a period not exceeding eighteen months and the Managing Director may grant additional sick leave, if considered advisable in the National Bank's interest, in special cases.

		A temporary employee shall be eligible for sick leave at one-twenty second part of service and on his confirmation in the National Bank's service, he shall be entitled to avail of balance portion of sick leave earned during his temporary service, which shall be in addition to eighteen months as above; Special leave may not be availed of, if ordinary leave is admissible; provided that an employee may be granted special leave if he is suffering from a disease requiring prolonged treatment and the employee has no ordinary leave and sick leave to his credit and is also not eligible for advance sick leave ; provided further that the production of medical certificate shall not be insisted upon if sick leave to be granted does not exceed four days and the Competent Authority is satisfied with the bonafides of the reasons for such a leave.
		(2) In case an employee is absent from duty on account of a quarantine, the National Bank may, at the request of the employee, treat such absence upto a maximum of three months as ordinary, sick or special leave if such leave is otherwise permissible. Special leave under this sub-rule may be availed of even if ordinary leave is admissible.
When grant requires sanction of a higher authority	94	The grant of sick or special leave to an employee in Group 'A', who has already exhausted sick or special leave as the case may be, proportionate to his length of service, shall require the sanction of Chairman and for employees other than an employee in Group 'A', it shall require the sanction of Managing Director. The grant of special leave to undertake a special course of study shall require the sanction of the Chairman.
Pay during sick and special leave	95	Sick and special leave shall be on half leave pay, which shall be reduced, except with the special sanction of the Managing Director, to one quarter of leave pay after six months in the case of special leave ;
		provided that where an employee has served the National Bank for at least a period of three years, he may, if he so requests, be permitted to avail himself, during the full period of his service, of sick leave on leave pay upto a maximum period of nine months, such leave on leave pay being entered in his sick leave account as twice the amount of leave taken by him.

		Explanation - For the purpose of this proviso, service includes continuous temporary service rendered by an employee prior to confirmation.
Extra-ordinary leave	96	(1) Extra-ordinary leave may be granted to an employee when no ordinary leave is due to him and when, having regard to his length of service, sick and special leave is not considered justified by the Competent Authority. (4) The Competent Authority may grant leave of any other kind admissible to the employee in combination with, or in continuation of maternity leave if the request for its grant is supported by sufficient medical certificate.

Accident leave	98	(1) Accident leave may be granted to an employee who sustains an injury in the course of the performance of his duties, for the period for which leave is certified by the National Bank's Medical Officer to be necessary for recovery from the injury.
		(2) Accident leave would also be admissible to an employee, who is on official tour in connection with the National Bank's work, subject to the period for which leave is necessary for recovery from the injury being certified either by the National Bank's Medical Officer or a Government/ Municipal doctor or any other doctor acceptable to the Competent Authority.
