

“Scaling-up Climate Resilient Agriculture Practices towards Climate Smart Villages (CSVs) in Haryana”: The objective of the project is to improve the adaptive capacity of rural community to climate change through enhancing the portfolios of climate resilient agriculture interventions in targeted villages of Haryana. The project would be undertaken in 250 villages in 10 districts of Haryana viz, Yamunanagar, Ambala, Kurukshetra, Karnal, Jind, Kaithal, Panipat, Sonapat, Sirsa and Fatehabad covering 75,000 families. Department of Agriculture, Government of Haryana is executing the project with an outlay of Rs. 22.10 Crores.

Click here to download Project Document

Click here to download Publication