

“Climate Resilient Sustainable Agriculture in Rain-Fed Farming (Kandi) Areas of Jammu and Kashmir” is being executed by Agriculture Production Department, Government of Jammu & Kashmir with an outlay of Rs.22.51 Crores. The project aims to improve the adaptive capacity of farmers, basically small and marginal farmers, through Climate Resilient Agricultural Practices, through adoption of appropriate and scientific cropping system, integrated nutrition and pest management practices, promotion of micro irrigation system in water stressed areas. The project would benefit 2,500 families of small and marginal farmers in Bhalwal block of Jammu District of Jammu Division and Budgam block of Budgam district from Kashmir division.

Click here to download Project Document

Click here to download Publication