THIRUVANANTHAPURAM: Administrative sanction has been given for works worth Rs 28.05 crore for the development of three hospitals in Kannur, Koothuparamba and Chalakkudy. Health minister K K Shailaja said here on Friday that the development works would be carried out with the support of Nabard.

While Nabard would fund Rs 23.84 crore, the state government would chip in Rs 4.20 crore for the works that would improve the infrastructure facilities of Kannur Irivery community health centre, Koothuparamba taluk hospital and Chalakkudy taluk hospital.

Irivery community centre has been sanctioned Rs 10.9 crore for construction of hospital building. Koothuparamba hospital would get Rs 13.05 crore for construction activities, while Chalakkudy hospital would get Rs 4.1 crore for the construction of trauma case surgery ward. The reconstruction work of Chalakkudy taluk hospital, which sustained severe damages in the floods, is progressing in a fast pace, the minister said.
